

Admissions Policy

Salient Points

IBA Admission Policy may be stated as follows:

- Admission will be offered to all those who qualify following a strict merit-based admission criteria irrespective of their race, religion, gender, ethnicity or socio-economic conditions.
- The criteria for admission is based on candidates meeting the following requirements:
 - Applying online and registering for appearing in the Aptitude Test.
 - Foreign Students and Non-Resident Pakistanis and Pakistani Nationals: ☒
All applicants (foreign students, non-resident Pakistanis, and Pakistani Nationals) with SAT I scores exceeding 1900 and GMAT scores exceeding 600 are exempted from the IBA undergraduate and graduate admissions test respectively, however they have to go through the group discussion and interview process. ☒
 - Participating in a group discussion and appearing for an interview.
 - Meeting the minimum academic eligibility requirement for the concerned program
 - Providing equivalence certificate in case of holders of degrees / certificates issued by non-Pakistani universities / boards
- The aim of the aptitude test is to evaluate candidates for their quantitative and analytical abilities, logical reasoning, communication skills, reading comprehension, lexical resource, grammatical range, and aptitude for the program.
- The aim of the group discussion is to evaluate candidates on their background, academic and other achievements, leadership potential, extracurricular interests, verbal communication, mannerism, integrity, appearance and enthusiasm.
- The interviews are designed to bring out the qualities needed not only to succeed in their chosen program of study but also their potential to contribute positively to the society when they graduate.
- There are no reserved / quota seats of any category at IBA.
- No effort will be made to fill all available seats / lower criteria if insufficient numbers of candidates apply or an individual candidate fails to satisfy the above criteria.
- No qualified candidate will be refused admission on the basis of his / her inability to pay IBA fees; such candidate's are however, required to apply for financial assistance and meet the criteria for the same.
- The cut-off for individual programs in the entrance test will be decided by the 'Admissions Committee' using rigorous methods based on statistical analysis.

- The test scores obtained by the test takers would remain valid for a period of 16 months, however, the minimum academic eligibility requirements will be those applicable at time of actual admission.
- There will be one aptitude test for admission to both campuses of IBA. Candidates may however, choose the campus of their preference at the time of admission and choose their ☐ ☐ specializations after a minimum of two year’s study at IBA for BBA and one year for MBA. ☐ ☐
- There is no distinction in the fee structure between the main and city campuses.
- A merit scholarship has been introduced at IBA, according to which candidates falling in the top 10% of the List of Candidates admitted to the BBA & MBA Programs (to be published at the culmination of the admission process) will be automatically awarded a 50% reduction in their tuition fees.

IBA Admission Procedure

Online Application

Applications are accepted through IBA Online Admissions System. The link to IBA Online Admissions System is available on IBA's website (www.iba.edu.pk).

To apply online, fill out the form, print and sign it, print the Challan and take these papers to the designated bank branches and deposit the application fees.

The list of branches can be viewed on IBAs website.

Issuance of Admit Cards

Applicants residing within Karachi can obtain their Admit Cards by visiting IBA City Campus with a copy of the paid Challan, a copy of duly signed-in Admission Form and two recent passport sized color photographs.

Applicants outside of Karachi can collect their Admit Cards from designated bank branches after payment of processing fees and submitting a copy of the signed Admission Form and two recent passport sized color photographs.

Aptitude Test

The aptitude test is conducted simultaneously at Karachi, Lahore, Islamabad, Peshawar and Quetta on a specified date. The Admit Cards issued to the applicants indicate the test center, date, and reporting time. Please make sure to read all instructions given on the back of the Admit Card carefully. The applicants should bring their Admit Cards along with a photo ID to be able to appear in the aptitude test.

The candidates are assessed for their language and analytical skills. Candidates who pass the aptitude test qualify for the group discussion followed by an interview.

Group Discussion

The selected candidates are divided into groups. These groups are given a topic to debate and discuss amongst themselves. During this process, communication skills, interpersonal skills, confidence and leadership potential are assessed.

Interview

Interviews are conducted for evaluating the level of maturity, academic aptitude, motivation, interpersonal skills and career focus of the applicants.

Required Documents

Candidates are required to bring the following documents in original on the day of Group Discussion / Interview:
