Executive Summary

Purpose

The purpose of this manual is to consolidate all decisions of the Academic Board of IBA that pertain to academic policies and to provide a current and ready reference to the same. The manual also documents other de-facto and de-jure academic policies and practices at IBA.

Methodology

The manual is prepared by going through all the relevant minutes of the meetings of the Academic Board of IBA and extracting relevant and latest decisions regarding academic policies at IBA. Other sources consulted include IBA program announcements, both past and present, official notices, IBA website and portal, official email correspondence and interviews of veteran employees who are familiar with IBA’s academic practices.

Presentation

Overall, the manual contains more than thirty policies formulated by IBA. These are presented in an alphabetical order in this manual. The policies are cross referenced and all relevant sources are specified. Since the setting of academic policies is a dynamic process, it is inevitable that any printed manual will become outdated with time. In order to reflect the latest policies, an online version of this manual is made available at IBA Portal.

Academic Freedom of Faculty

IBA recognizes the importance of academic freedom for unhampered inquiry and exchange of ideas essential to the intellectual life of an institution of higher learning. Academic freedom is a right of every faculty member and every student. It implies the obligation to respect and to support the academic freedom of all other members of the Institute academic community. The responsibility for preserving academic freedom at IBA rests equally with the faculty and the administration. Academic freedom for the teacher implies the right to an unfettered search for truth and its exposition in his or her chosen field of expertise or scholarship.

Specifically, the following principles of academic freedom are endorsed by IBA:

Teachers are entitled to full freedom in research and in the publications of the results, subject to the adequate performance of their other academic duties; but research for pecuniary return should be based upon an understanding with the authorities of the institution.

Teachers are entitled to freedom in the classroom in discussing their subject, but they should be careful not to introduce into their teaching controversial matter that has no relation to their subject. Limitations of academic freedom because of other aims of the institution shall be clearly stated in writing at the time of appointment. Teachers are also free to balance their time between teaching, research, service and other academic activities.

College or university teachers are citizens, members of a learned profession and officers of an educational institution. When they speak or write as citizens, they should be free from institutional censorship or discipline, but their special position in the community imposes special obligations. As scholars and educational officers they should remember that the public may judge their profession and their institution by their utterances. Hence, they should at all times be accurate, should exercise appropriate restraint, should show respect for the opinions of others and should make every effort to indicate that they are not speaking for the institution.

Academic Peer Review

Academic Peer Review is a faculty support tool designed to give peer feedback to the faculty in order to learn from each other and enhance quality of teaching at IBA. Approximately 5-10% courses are selected each semester and all sections of a course are generally reviewed. A Committee of three members, including the Academic Committee Chairperson, Department chairperson, and a subject matter expert conducts the review. The process includes getting confidential feedback from a minimum of three students (high achievers, average, and struggling students). The feedback is kept confidential to encourage students to discuss their issues candidly. The review activity consists of five stages. The fifth stage is follow-up review for compliance of recommendations.

There are many advantages of the process. Some of the key benefits of the process are as follows:

- Ability to observe delivery and give recommendations to faculty to identify improvement areas.
- Ability to interact with students and get detailed feedback and drill down into areas of concern.
- Opportunity to review the exam papers and scripts to identify areas of improvements.
- Obtain Feedback from faculty and bring about improvements based on their suggestions.
- Review all sections of courses to identify issues in course outline coverage.

Recommendations arising from APR are as follows:

- All courses must have weekly assignments (possibly checked by TAs) and weekly quizzes
- Students Evaluation should include questions pertaining to rigor and course coverage
- Variation in course coverage / examinations for core courses should be minimized
- The department chairpersons should give standardized course outline for core courses and a common pool of questions should be developed from which papers could be set
- Chairpersons should hold two departmental meetings per semester (once prior to start of exams and once after either term exam) with the objective to review course outlines and pace of coverage for core courses
- RCOs (Reference Course Outlines) should be developed and made public on LMS
- All student reports and assignments must be submitted via plagiarism checking software

Add - Drop Week

The Add/Drop week starts with the commencement of the semester and runs for one week, during which students may add/drop courses with fee reimbursement provision. For the summer semester the add/drop period with fee reimbursement provision is within the first four calendar days of the semester. During the Add/Drop week, students are allowed to attend classes to choose the particular teacher and section that they are comfortable with. However, this week is considered the first week of the semester and the teachers conduct the classes and take attendances as usual. Any absence from the classes held in the Add/Drop week is considered a real one and counted towards the total number of absence allowed to the students during the semester. The attendance for this week is however transferable. No change in the schedule or time tables is allowed during the ADD/Drop week. After the commencement of the regular semester, the teachers and the students may find it convenient to change the class time table with mutual consent. They may do so only with the permission of the chairpersons and the MBA program director.

Arms Length Rule for Ph.D Examiners

The IBA’s Board of Advanced Studies and Research (BASR) in its 4th Meeting decided that a supervisor while proposing the names of examiners will have to certify that none of the examiners (both internal and external) have:

- any current/previous familial relationship with him/her
- done any joint research/publications with his/her student
- been his/her student
- examined any of his/her previous doctoral students *
- supervised his/her student's earlier research work

* this clause is only applicable to foreign examiners and in special circumstances the condition might be relaxed after approval from BASR.

The BASR decided that in future prior consent from the proposed examiners would not be taken. Consent would only be taken after the approval by the BASR.

The BASR decided that six names may be suggested by the supervisor in case of foreign experts, and four names to be suggested in case of local experts.

The BASR also decided that engaging foreign experts at the proposal defence stage would be optional; not mandatory.

Attendance Policy

A distinguishing feature of the IBA is its adherence to the academic calendar. A detailed program is provided on the first day of every semester. Students are required to attend lectures, laboratory sessions, seminars and fieldwork as may be specified for a course each semester.

Attendance is recorded at the beginning of each session. Late comers are marked absent even if they are late by a minute. No excuses are accepted.

If a student accumulates more than the permissible number of absences, he/she is not permitted to sit for the final examination.\(^9\)

Full-time students are allowed 6 absences in a 1 hour course, 4 in a 75 or 90-minute course and 3 during a summer course.\(^10\)

Part-time/evening students are allowed 7 absences in a regular semester (75-minute) course and 5 in a summer semester course. In general, IBA stipulates a minimum of 90% attendance for full-time students and 75% for part-time students.

Students are not allowed to remain absent on the first and last day of the semester. Serious action is taken against those who violate this rule.

Extra Absences

Full-time students attending day-time classes are allowed a maximum of four absences. The students can however avail two extra absences if they participate in IBA related extracurricular activities. This facility may be extended to graduating seniors who have to go for a prospective job interview. All such absences are documented and approved by the patrons, in case of extracurricular activities and the CDC in case of job interviews. The program director, after proper verification, consolidates and presents it to the Dean and Director for his approval as one consolidated request.

\(^9\) The Program Announcement says the student is ‘awarded an ‘F’ in that particular course’, which is generally true for courses assigning 40% marks to the final examination.

\(^10\) Historical note: Traditionally IBA allows 10% absences plus another 5% on teacher’s discretion for regular students and 25% for part-time (evening) students.
Class Durations

The class duration is 120 minutes for the MBA day and MBA evening classes. The classes meet twice a week for a three credit hour course.

The class duration is 75 minutes for the MS and PhD classes. The classes meet twice a week for a three credit hour course.

The class duration is 75 minutes for the BBA program. The classes meet twice a week for a three credit hour course.

The class duration is 75 minutes for the BS program. The classes meet twice a week for a three credit hour course. For four credit hour course, there is a 75 minute lab session associated with each class session.

For Executive Education, a three-hour class will be held once a week per course.

The minimum number of sessions is 28 for the 75 minute classes. For Executive Education the minimum number of required sessions is 24.

Comprehensive Examinations

Every student graduating from MBA or EMBA programs is required to pass a comprehensive examination on completion of the course work. This four to six hour examination is held after every regular semester. The examination usually consists of six half an hour papers from different disciplines, followed by a one to four hour case study exam.

After completion of coursework, the maximum period allowed to clear the comprehensive examination is 10 years for the students admitted prior to 2004, in maximum three attempts. However, the students admitted in 2004 and onwards are allowed maximum 5 years to pass the comprehensive examination from the date of completion of course work with no restriction on number of attempts.

Students, who fail to pass the comprehensive examination, are eligible only for the individual course certificates. A student is eligible for a transcript/degree only after passing the comprehensive examination. However, he/she may obtain a provisional certificate on completion of the course requirement.

Relaxation:

The Academic Board lifted the 10 year time bar rule for the students admitted prior to 2004. However, the limit on the number of attempts for such students remains fixed at three.

PhD students:

A three member committee appointed by the BASR is responsible for holding comprehensive exams for PhD students. The Committee is responsible for getting the paper set (or papers in case of more than one examinee), getting the paper(s) checked and obtaining and declaring the results. The committee normally consists of the Adviser(s) of the examinees, Associate Dean, and Program Director. The committee coordinates with Controller Examinations for logistics / invigilation / scheduling / conduct of exams / and safe custody of the exam scripts. The Program Director as the Convener of the Committee coordinates with the Controller of Examinations.

The comprehensive exam will be based on 5 out of 8 PhD courses for CS and Mathematics students, and on Micro, Macro and one elective for Economics students. At least 3 examiners will set these papers.
The duration of the Ph.D Comprehensive Examination will be five hours for five papers. An oral exam would also be given to the Ph.D students along with Comprehensive Examination. The Oral Exam would be conducted by those who set the papers for the Comprehensive Examinations.

A position on the Dean’s list entitles the concerned student for wearing of an IBA logo in a star on his / her ID card as a symbol of distinct identification which also allows him / her to avail the benefits such as book discounts. Additionally, the said special mark will be displayed on the Dean List achiever’s transcript and against his / her entry in the graduate directory.

Examination Policy

Examinations play a vital role in the learning process of students. They provide feedback to the students about their progress in a particular course, and also help a faculty member assess their students' competency level. Examinations are used by IBA to assess, certify and rank students' performance.

Examinations at IBA come in various forms starting with the entrance test and ending with the comprehensive examination. For any particular course, there are usually from one to three mid-term examinations and a final examination arranged and conducted by the Examination Department, interspersed by announced or unannounced ‘pop quizzes’. The duration of these quizzes is normally five to ten minutes. The duration of the mid-terms and the final examination is stipulated by the Examination Department and is usually one and a half hours for the (two) midterms and three hours for the final. Previously, IBA used to conduct three one-hour 'hourlies' at the end of each month followed by a three-hour final.

The format of examination for the course Speech Communication is oral, rather than written. All Speech Communication classes as well as exams are video recorded.

Faculty teaching Masters Level courses (both MBA and MS programs)\(^ {13} \) may choose between one or two mid-term options and may also administer a mid-term as a ‘take-home’ examination. In case of a take-home exam also known as WAC (Written Analysis of a Case), the faculty member has to follow that up by an additional one-hour in camera examination that would also carry appropriate weight.

Since prompt feedback is important, IBA faculty has maintained a tradition of discussing the results of the mid-term exams in the first or second regular meeting after the exam and announcing the final results within 10 days of the date of the final examination.

Around 40% of the total marks are usually allocated for the finals, whereas the rest are divided among various components including mid-terms, quizzes, home assignments, projects, term reports, and class participation. IBA does not encourage the practice of 'choice' for the questions to be answered; all questions must be attempted in the final examination. However, the teacher may use the formula of n-m for the quizzes, in which the best m out of n quizzes will be counted.

The use of mobile devices is strictly prohibited in the examination halls. Students get a warning announcement at the beginning of an exam, and if a mobile phone / smart device is \(^{13}\) Minutes of the 63rd Meeting of the Academic Board held November 16, 2013 Decision 10.9

later on found with a student, the student will be imposed a fine of Rs.10,000/- on first offence, and Rs.20,000/- on second offence. This is applicable to all types of exams.

Exams for Short Courses

There would be only one exam (final exam) of 1.5 credit hours courses however the teacher may take quizzes and assignments. If two 1.5 credit hours courses complementing each other are offered during the same semester, they should be dove-tailed. The final exam of first offered course should be held during Graduate Mid Term exam week and the second course’s final exam should be held at the time of final examination.

Final Paper / Final Project Report Re-check Policy

If a student is not satisfied with the marks awarded to him/her in the final exam by the course instructor, the student can apply to the Controller of Examinations (CoE) for re-checking / scrutiny of the final paper. The CoE forwards three copies of student’s coded answer script to the concerned Chairpersons with the request to get it re-checked by three senior faculty members independently.

The fee for re-checking is Rs.5000/= which is refundable if the panel awards higher marks that changes student's grade in the subject.

The Principle of Good Standing

Students are required to maintain discipline, good conduct and behavior during their studies at the IBA. A student shall be deemed to have lost good standing and consequently his/her name shall be dropped from the rolls of the Institute if his/her conduct and behavior is found objectionable from a disciplinary point of view.

The Academic Board also decided that IBA would encourage relative grading but the faculty member would have the flexibility of adopting relative grading system or absolute grading system. The faculty would also have the liberty to decide the percentage that would get A’s, B’s, and C’s. However, the faculty members must disclose their grading plan, whether relative or absolute, through the course outline at the beginning of the semester.

Note: Grade I stands for incomplete, and Grade W shows withdrawn course.

Grading Policy

Student performance is evaluated through a system of testing spread over the entire period of their studies. In addition to the final examination at the end of each semester, students are tested through term exams, a series of short quizzes, class discussions, written assignments, research reports, presentations on different topics, etc. all of which contribute to the final grade.

A student usually sits for two term examinations for each course every semester (scores of both term examinations are counted towards the final grade). A number of surprise quizzes are also taken during the semester to monitor the performance of the students.

In determining the course grade, 60% of the final grade is based on the semester work and 40% on the semester final examination. However, the Institute reserves the right to modify these weights.

A Cumulative Grade Points Average (CGPA) is computed at the end of the semester. Final grades in each course are converted to grade points on the following basis.

\text{Sum of (credit hours X grade points)} / \text{Sum of credit hours}

The initial CGPA of the PGD/MBA students of the evening program is calculated on the basis of the first 6 courses taken by them. Withdrawals and failures, if any, are also counted.

Improvement of Grades

The students are allowed to repeat courses in order to improve the grades. This privilege comes with the following conditions:

a) The better of the two attempts be treated as the final result and there would be no averaging.

b) The final CGPA would be calculated on the basis of the better of two attempts.

c) The new grade will appear on the transcript.

d) In case a student gets a lower grade than what he/she obtained previously, the old grade will stand valid.

e) A student who is repeating the course would be disqualified from the Gold Medal nominations and Dean’s list.

f) All course repeat cases for grade improvement would be charged for the additional course fee.

The Academic Committee has recommended treating “F” as any other grade and allowing students to improve their grades. In this case the new grade will replace the “F” grade and will not be counted as another course. Subsequently, the Academic Board approved the replacement of “F” grade with new grades obtained without accounting “F” in CGPA. This would be applicable from the date the improvement of grades was allowed.

Internship Policy

Internship, performed during BBA 6 and MBA 2, is mandatory for all BBA/MBA students to qualify for their degree. Internships provide students with the opportunity to apply learning to real life situations, gain exposure to organizational settings and practice their interpersonal skills. An internship can be for a minimum of six weeks and a maximum of eight weeks at a stretch. It may be paid or unpaid. The following terms apply:

a) Only those students who have completed 100 undergraduate or 30 graduate credit hours are eligible.

b) Students who once accept an internship offer from one organization and wish to switch to another may only do so after initiating and obtaining intimation and permission from Career Development Center of IBA.

c) Any student who discontinues his/her internship without prior approval will be liable for disciplinary action.

d) The last date for the commencement of internship is six weeks before the start of classes.

e) All such students who do not receive any internship offer or who do not engage themselves with any offer presented to them will not be allowed to exercise their privilege of choice 15 days prior to the last date of commencement.

f) Any offer made 15 days before the last date of commencement to students will be considered as compulsory offer and students will have to accept it.

g) Students will be required to submit their internship offer letters or an email by their supervisor/HR department (official email account only) confirming their internship status within 2 weeks of starting their internship.

h) Students will be required to submit their internship report within 1 week after the completion of their internship.

i) MBA students who have completed their internship during their BBA program at IBA are not required to do it again.16

16 The 68th Meeting of the Academic Board of IBA, April 30, 2015. Decision 8.2
Make-Up Examinations

I. For Morning Program Students of both Campuses.

No make-up examination shall be allowed for missing Term or Semester Final Examination under normal circumstances.

II. For Evening Program Students.

Evening program students, who are sent out of Karachi during term and final examinations on official assignments by their respective organizations, may be allowed to take make-up examinations under following conditions:

a) This facility will be allowed to the Evening Program students only for one of the two term examinations for the courses taken by them.

b) This facility shall also be allowed for the semester final exams if the student has not already availed this facility for the term examinations. The concerned student shall be required to provide the following documents at least one week before the scheduled exam:
   a. A certificate from his/her organization giving details of the official assignment.
   b. Evidence of official travel.

The student shall be required to appear in the makeup of a term exam within three weeks of the original exam date and within six weeks for the semester final exam on payment of Rs.2000/- as examination fee for one subject.

III. Make-up Exam on Medical Grounds.

A make-up examination may be allowed on medical grounds only in extremely serious cases authenticated by recognized hospitals. The decision will be taken by the Executive Committee. The Committee’s decision in this regard shall be final. This facility shall, however, be allowed only for one of the two term examinations in a semester. No make-up of semester final exam shall be allowed on medical grounds of any kind.

The Registrar has the responsibility and authority of verification of medical documents submitted by the students.
IV. Make-up Exam in case of Spouse's or Parent's Illness

In the 57th meeting of the Academic Board it is decided to expand the existing make-up policy to cover the cases (i) in which student’s spouse is hospitalized in extremely serious condition, and (ii) the death of mother or father of a student has taken place. The applicants will have to produce documentary evidence to substantiate their request. Other conditions of make-up exam will remain unchanged.

V. The Case of Students who attend Conferences.

IBA students attending conferences/seminars while officially representing IBA may be allowed to take make-up exams (both mid-term and final) based on the approval of the Dean/Associate Deans on the recommendation of concerned Program Director/Patron of the Society.

VI. All other cases.

The Academic Board, in its 62nd Meeting\(^\text{17}\), allowed the concerned faculty to take a decision in light of the guidelines given below for cases not covered above.

• Option of re-conducting exams:

The teacher may develop a makeup exam for the student if possible. The teacher needs to ensure that the student does not get an unfair advantage if the missed exam was difficult. The makeup exams can be for one missed exam and not more.

• Assigning an Average Grade:

The teacher can offer an average to the student. However the teacher must consider whether to award the class average or average of a students’ overall performance as he/she may be a class topper or a weak student. The aspect of unfair advantage needs to be taken into account as a particular student may study more for some courses and less for others to balance out their overall performance.

• Assigning a Project or assignment:

The teacher can assign additional course work which may help the student cover the missed work and can be evaluated on that basis.

\(^\text{17}\) The 62nd Meeting of the Academic Board, held August 28, 2013. Decision 7.5
• Makeup Final exam:

If the student has missed the final exam, a simple exam or assignment is not recommended as the student has not been tested on a large portion of the syllabus.

• Authority for Makeup exams:

The Academic Board transferred the powers relating to make-up exams and academic matters earlier delegated to the Executive Committee, to the Academic Committee in its 66th Meeting. The Academic Committee may take up genuine cases, including those of emergencies/medical issues such as hospitalization, pregnancy / delivery, blood transfusion, dialysis etc.

Maximum Program Completion Time

MBA students must complete their course work within 5 years of their admission.

BBA students must complete their course work within 7 years of their admission.

The students must clear their comprehensive examinations within 5 years of completing their coursework.

For MBA(Evening) in case a student opts to do PGD only, then 3½ years time limit will apply otherwise there would be no time bound for PGD and the student could continue and complete his / her MBA (Evening) in total seven years time period.

Merit Scholarship

A merit scholarship is available at IBA, according to which candidates falling in the top 10% of the List of Candidates admitted to the BBA & MBA Programs (to be published at the culmination of the admission process) will be offered a 50% reduction in their tuition fees, in lieu of participation in a work study program.

It will, however be obligatory / incumbent on all merit scholarship holders to maintain a CGPA of 3.5 on completion of two semesters each year. Inability to maintain the said CGPA will render the concerned merit scholarship holder ineligible for continuation of the merit scholarship in the remaining semesters.

In case a student loses his / her standing for merit scholarship, and regaining the required CGPA in any subsequent semester, the student will again become eligible for merit scholarship in the next semester however he / she will not be entitled to claim the same for the preceding semesters.

Deferment of the availing of Merit Scholarship

If a student opts to defer his / her admission, the merit scholarship concession earned by him / her is automatically awarded to the student who is next on merit. Consequently, whereas the admission offer remains intact for 16 months – to avail merit scholarship the applicants have to compete again with the next batch of students.

Minimum GPA Requirements

A student must maintain a minimum GPA of 2.2 on a cumulative basis during their stay at the IBA. Any student with a GPA of less than 2.0 is dropped from the rolls of the Institute. A student securing a GPA between 2.0 and 2.2 is put on probation for one semester. Full-time students are required to improve their GPA and bring it to the required minimum 2.2 in the chronologically following semester. [In a similar CGPA situation the part-time (evening program) students would be on probation in the next semester in which they register, which may be different from the chronologically next semester at IBA.]18 If the CGPA improves but remains below 2.2 the students are put on a second probation. The student is dropped if the CGPA does not reach 2.2 or more after the second probation. No semester break is allowed during this time for full-time students. If a student fails to pass certain courses and yet manages to maintain his/her GPA equal to or above 2.2 he/she is allowed to repeat and clear the course(s) or substitute(s), wherever permissible, before the degree is awarded to him/her.

The CGPA is calculated as follows:

a) At the end of each semester, the CGPA of a student of the Morning Program (excluding MBA – Morning) shall be calculated. In the CGPA calculation the courses with grades ‘F’ will be counted but Remedial courses and courses with ‘W’ and ‘I’ will not to be counted.

b) If the CGPA is between 2.0 to 2.2 and the student has taken more than five courses so far (the courses with grades ‘F’ will be counted but Remedial courses and courses with ‘W’ and ‘I’ will not to be counted) then a warning letter (probation letter) will be issued.

c) If the CGPA is below 2.0 and the student has taken more than five courses so far (the courses with grades ‘F’ will be counted but Remedial courses and courses with ‘W’ and ‘I’ will not to be counted) then the student will be dropped from the role of IBA.

d) If the student has taken less than six courses so far (the courses with grades ‘F’ will be counted but Remedial courses and courses with ‘W’ and ‘I’ will not to be counted) then no action will be taken and the student will remain on the role of IBA.

e) All students are required to enrol in at least four non-Remedial courses throughout each semester.

18 The 62nd Meeting of the Academic Board, held August 28, 2013. Decision 6.3
f) For the BS Computer Science program where five courses (17 / 18 credit hours courses) are offered in a semester, the CGPA would be calculated on five courses completed.

g) For the MBA (Morning) program students, the CGPA would be calculated semester-wise irrespective of the number of courses completed.

h) For the MBA(Evening) program where the courses are not fixed for a semester, the CGPA would be calculated on six courses completed. In case of more than six courses, the course(s) with best grades shall be taken to the counting of six.

Note: If the final CGPA is below 2.2 at the time of program completion, the students are asked to repeat a course or take another course to bring their GPA to the minimum required for graduation.

For the Evening /Part time students (MBA, MS Eco, and MS CS) CGPA is calculated after completion of six courses, and subsequently after each semester that a student enrolls in.

For PhD (CS/MIS) students CGPA is calculated after completion of four courses, and subsequently after each semester that a student enrolls in.

IBA Remedial Policy

The students who clear all the admission requirements of IBA are asked to take a 'remedial exemption test' for the subjects of English and Mathematics. Those who do not clear this test are asked to take remedial English and Mathematics courses (non-credit) before they are allowed to take regular English and Mathematics subjects in their respective programs.

There would be no remedial course on English for students who enroll in English Grammar & Composition with the revised method of assessment.

MS students not having strong mathematics background would be offered non-credit course of 300 or 400 level as the case may be subject to assessment by Department of Mathematics and the students would not be charged for such courses. This course would be in addition to the normal course load so that the students may cover their deficiencies.

Summer Orientation Program / Winter Orientation Program

IBA will introduce Summer Orientation Program (SOP) (for Fall intake) and Winter Orientation Program (WOP) (for Spring intake) for all students admitted in MBA from 2015 onwards. SOP/WOP will replace remedial program and will set the tone and level of rigor for the entire MBA program. SOP/WOP will be mandatory for all MBA students irrespective of their undergrad degree.

The purpose of the orientation programs is to make students familiar with the business courses, case method of teaching, and IBA’s expectations. These programs will allow students to know their group dynamics, and participate in team building. The programs will inform the students about IBA ethics, norms and values.

Teaching Assistants

1. The responsibility and accountability of Teaching Assistants (TAs) would vary with each department and the faculty of that department will determine and notify those selected as TAs. The responsibilities, selection process and terms and conditions would be as follows:

Responsibilities

1. Conduct formal tutorials as prescribed in the timetable.
2. Assisting faculty member in the planning of courses and its contents.
3. In conjunction with the faculty member, developing a system of recording student(s’) progress.
4. Checking quizzes and assignments only.
5. Supporting faculty members during labs, if required.
6. Conduct informal counseling hours
7. Support weaker students by providing special assistance, in order to prepare them for formal examinations.

Selection of TA

1. Fulltime MS students and those PhD students who are not teaching independently shall be given the first priority, to work as TAs.
2. Undergraduate students (6th Semester and above) with a CGPA of 3.0 or above should be given second priority, upon recommendation of the concerned faculty member.
3. Head of Department will finally approve the allocation of TAs.

Terms and Conditions

1. A TA will follow IBA rules and regulations regarding confidentiality, anti-discrimination, diversity, and equality.
2. A TA will work for 20 hours/week only.
3. A TA will assist not more than two courses.
4. In case of fulltime MS student, a TA must read for minimum of three graduate level courses. In his last semester, this condition may be relaxed to the number of remaining courses to complete his program.
5. A TA will not conduct a formal lecture in lieu of a faculty member.
6. A TA will not be involved in any formal grading of Midterm or Final term examination.

The above guidelines are generic in nature and can be tailor-made according to the departmental requirements. The appointment letters should reflect responsibilities, scope of duties (TORs) and accountabilities. Evaluation of TAs would be done on the basis of performance indicators set by each department. The performance evaluation will be done by a Committee of the faculty approved by the Chairperson.

2. The TAs would be allocated to Maths and English, followed by Accounting, Economics, and Computer Science. In English on-line programs would be explored in order to supplement face to face teaching. The Writing Centre will be used for the bottom 30%. Paid PhD and MS students have to be given first preference in selection of TAs; where graduate students are not available, seniors in undergraduate programs would be deployed.

3. The Accounting and Law will meet as a faculty at the beginning of the semester and take collective decisions as to which TAs are going to be used for remedial, for case writing and problem solving and for research. Their model will be topic specific not course specific. (There would be no TA for Admin). The remedial can be based on topic or course specific as the case may be.

4. The minimum GPA requirement for selecting a TA will be 3.0 but for the topic at least it should be a grouping of courses in which they should have GPA of 3.33 or above. In case of Accounting and Law TAs can be hired from students of 5th and 6th semester; 4th semester could be an exception not the standard.

5. Marketing Chair will consult the faculty of her department as to which courses are to be given priority for the deployment of TAs. The department chair has the flexibility but he/she has to work within the above frame work and priorities. However, for case studies, TAs would be provided as per policy.

Undergraduate Students Taking Graduate Courses

IBA Coordination Committee has decided that BBA students can take MBA electives. However, BBA students taking MBA electives will be subject to MBA rules. If there is one Midterm exam for the MBA elective, BBA students will take one Midterm exam.

Undergrad students with 3.5 and above CGPA, but not more than 5-10 students in one section, will be allowed to take 500 level and above courses subject to availability of seats. ERP restrictions will be imposed so that undergrad students cannot enroll directly in 500 level courses. Only program office will enroll them after verifying their CGPA.

Withdrawal from a Course

Full-time students are allowed to withdraw from up to two courses in a semester if such withdrawal helps the student in improving his/her performance in the remaining courses. The withdrawal must be sought on prescribed forms within one week of the second term examination result. Withdrawal from a course is not treated as failure. However, once a student has accumulated more than the permissible absences in any course, he/she is not allowed to withdraw from that course and is awarded an ‘F’. Part-time students are allowed to withdraw from some or all of the courses for which they have registered in a semester. Permission to withdraw from a course must be made on the prescribed form available from the Evening Program office within one week of the second term examination result or within one week after the announcement of midterm examination results in the summer semester.
